STATEMENT OF APPEAL RIGHTS

You have been tentatively denied assistance for the reasons listed below. You have the right to appeal this decision. To do so, all that is required is for you or your legal representative to personally appear before the Veterans Service Commission at the next regular scheduled board meeting, unless otherwise directed in writing. The next regular board meeting will be held on _____ at _____ PM. If you do not appear or otherwise submit a written notice prior to that time, you will be deemed to have accepted the tentative denial and it will be final.
